

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to require their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election without a counter-balancing pro-Kerry or anti-Bush program is a misuse of the public airwaves.

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest. It is not in the interest of the public to air only a biased, partisan program.

Thank you for looking into this matter.